Mr. ROHRBACHER. Mr. Chairman, I move that the committee do now rise. The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore [Mr. LAHOOD] having assumed the chair, Mr. KINGSTON, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 2405) to authorize appropriations for fiscal years 1996 and 1997 for civilian science activities of the Federal Government, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

TRIBUTE TO JIM KENNELLY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Connecticut [Mr. GEJDENSON] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. GEJDENSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today first as a senior member of the Connecticut delegation to give our condolences to a colleague, the gentlewoman from Connecticut, BARBARA KENNELLY, who lost her husband this weekend.

Jim Kennelly was my speaker when I was first elected to the State House in 1975. Speaker Kennelly was one of the individuals that every Member, Republican and Democrat, respected for his incredible knowledge of the rules of the House. In every legislative opportunity, Speaker Kennelly really showed his brilliance. As a legislator, he was second to no one. He held such a commanding presence on legislative matters in the State House.

Mr. Speaker, I think that of all those 151 Members that served those two sessions that I served in the Connecticut General Assembly with Speaker Kennelly, it was clear he was felt to be the most brilliant Member of the body, the most dedicated public servant working late into the night.

We are going to miss Jim, and we obviously feel for our colleague and friend, BARBARA KENNELLY. I have known the Kennelly's now for in the range of 20, 25 years. The intensity of political life is such that it bonds you in a way that almost no other experience except for war may do to individuals. And for Democrats and Republicans alike, as we have tremendous battles over substantive issues, our feelings for our families and for our friendship is that much more intense. I will miss Jim Kennelly, and I pain for my colleague and friend, BARBARA KENNELLY.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. GEJDENSON. I yield to the gentlewoman from Connecticut.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Connecticut.

Both Sam and I served in the Connecticut State Legislature when Jim was Speaker of the House of Representatives. While Sam served directly under him, I felt his influence in the upper chamber. Jim Kennelly was probably as brilliant a legislative mind as any State has enjoyed. But not only was he a fine legislator, he was an extremely able politician in the best sense of that word.

He really did listen to the concerns of people from different parts of the State with different difficulties, different problems, and, kind of in the tradition of Tip O'Neill, he led in the best sense of that word. The gift that he gave to Connecticut during his years of political involvement, though naturally we did not all agree, was a gift that every single citizen enjoyed with or without their direct knowledge.

As we join on the floor here tonight to remember Jim Kennelly, I would like to comment on my heartfelt sympathy for BARBARA, his extremely able wife and our colleague, for she has served Jim and her family, this Congress and her constituency and our Nation with extraordinary ability. They were a close couple, a strong family, the best kind of model both of public servants and capable leaders that America is capable of producing.

I join you in paying tribute to Jim Kennelly, an outstanding political leader and a special person in the hearts of every Member of the Connecticut constituency.

Mr. GEJDENSON. I would like to thank the gentleman from Utah, Mr. HANSEN, who has agreed to wait a couple extra minutes so that we can complete our respect and concern for BARBARA.

I yield to the gentlewoman from Connecticut [Ms. DELAURO].

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank my colleagues, SAM GEJDENSON and NANCY JOHNSON, and I wish we did not have to take the floor this evening for this sad occasion. Connecticut truly today did lose one of its finest public servants in Jim Kennelly. My colleague, our colleague, BARBARA KENNELLY, lost so much more today, and we extend to BARBARA and to her family and to her children our heartfelt sympathy. Our thoughts and our prayers are with the Kennelly family.

We pay tribute to a man who was truly a powerhouse, an unbelievable legislator in his own right, and as well a political spouse. There were none better in that role. It was 1959 that Jim and BARBARA were married, and they became a political power couple in the State of Connecticut. Jim was a rising star. BARBARA was heir to one of Connecticut's most famous political dynasties.

Together they shared the dream and, as our NANCY JOHNSON just said, they were a wonderful couple. They were a political couple. They were a caring couple. They cared about what happened to people in the State of Connecticut and all over this country.
